WEDNESDAY .....JULY 19, 1882.

The Egyptian Situation.

The situation in Egypt is unchanged. There is just now a lull after the hurricane of shot and shell and fire, which has carried death and desolation over the city of Alexandria. The whereabouts of Arabi Pasha and his followers is not definitely known. They are reported to be hovering on the outskirts of Alexandria. There is also a report that Arabi's troops are demoralized and deserting him. A small body of Egyptian soldiers seem to have cast their lot with the Khedive, and are now under British protection.

The British seem to be at present undecided what to do next. Their energies are now directed toward restoring order in Alexandria, and in suppressing the flames which the shells of the British fleet, as well as the torches of released convicts and thieving Bedouins, started. Alexandria, the fairest of Egyptian cities, is a scene of desolation and ruin, and, from all accounts, the end of its woes is not yet.

The London Times is urging a vigorous pursuit and punishment of Arabi Pasha, on the ground of his inhumanity. There seems to be a disposition on the part of the British Government, however, to await the action of Turkey. A faint promise is given by that Power of taking steps to restore order in its dependency. It may be that England, whose course of action thus far has been approved by other European powers, will wait a reasonable time for signs of Turkey's sincerity. It may be taken for granted that if Turkey does not adopt prompt and vigorous measures for the restoration of order in Egypt that England will do so; and in the work it will probably be assisted by other nations. The preparations which England is now making appear to be designed for such a contingency.

Whether there be any destructive designs or not on the part of Arabi Pasha toward the Suez Canal, every possible precaution seems to be taken to prevent them being carried out. British war vessels are patrolling the canal and covering its entrance with their guns.

In the meantime, a rupture is reported in the British Ministry owing to the warlike turn of affairs in Egypt. John Bright has never counseled or favored war in any form. He is always to be found as an advocate of peace. His political faith is that all difficulties between nations as well as between individuals, can be and ought to be settled without bloodshed and by arbitration. His retirement from the Ministry is, under the circumstances, nothing strange, and it is not likely to in any way disturb the policy (whatever it may be) which the British Government has decided to pursue toward Arabi Pasha or Egypt.

In the trial of Queen Victoria's would-be-assassin the other day, Sir Henry James, the Attorney-General, said in the course of his remarks: "Experiments have been made which in evidence would be given, and which would show that, had the bullet traveled either slightly to the right or to the left, the death of Her Majesty would have been accomplished." This leads us to inquire what kind of a hairpin is Queen Victoria, anyhow.

Saline Valley, Inyo county, is one of the most remarkable places in the State. It is simply an immense basin, say 12 by 25 miles in size, surrounded on all sides with great mountains. At the lowest point of depression is found some 1,200 acres of pure salt—millions of tons of it—glistening like crusted snow. Bordering on this on all sides, except the west, come miles square of sandy, dusty lands, caustic with alkali, borax, or similar deposits.

The American electrotypes of William E. Gladstone look as though William had just put on a pair of his last summer pants and had neglected to remove the bumble bee that roosted in them during the winter. The expression on his face is one of extreme woe and grieved surprise.

A large area of sorghum has been planted this season in Jackson Oregon, and more syrup than ever will be manufactured there. It looks now as if the sugar business in Oregon will become a very important industry.

Fawab Igbalood-Dowlah, Vikar-ool Oomra, was present at the Prince Leopold's wedding. The usher who announced his name is slowly recovering but it is thought he'll be crippled for life.

People who complain of the heat down East should think of Guiteau and be content, says Bill Nye.

Horatio Seymour is drafting his regular letter declining the Presidency for 1884.

Covering Land With Greenbacks.

Those living on the boundless prairies, where the government gives a farm to every man or woman who will take it, live on it, and work it and where any amount of land can be bought for a very few shillings or dollars per acre, will open their eyes pretty wide on seeing the price paid the other day for a plot of ground in New York city, on the corner of Fifth avenue and Fifty-fourth street. It is four "city lots" 25 by 100 feet, or just 100 feet square, making 10,000 square feet, which is less than a quarter of an acre—(an acre is 43,560 square feet). Mr. W. H. Vanderbilt bought the plot to build a couple of houses on it for two married daughters, and the cash paid for this quarter acre was $396,000, or at the rate of over a million and a half dollars per acre ($1,584,000 per acre). The ordinary greenback bills, somewhat closely trimmed, are 7¼ inches long, and 3 1-15 inches wide, having 22 square inches of surface; six and a half bills lack but an inch of covering or "carpeting" a square foot. A little figuring will show that the price paid for Mr. Vanderbilt's plot would just about cover it all over with one-dollar bills laid six deep, or cover it with five-dollar bills and spread one-dollar bills all over these.

Mrs. Grant.

Nearsightedness is becoming a personal defect in Mrs. Grant, but the good old lady is still as hearty and kindly in her manner as ever. A correspondent writes of her:

"Mrs. Grant has a bluff, hearty way, quite popular with social cynics who tire of prim receptions, where Mr. Retired Grocer and Mrs. Retired Grocer receive visits in all the state of a baron and baroness, and the chilling atmosphere of snobbish ignorance fills the stuffy drawing room. The ex-President's wife will smite a gentleman over the back with her fan, and call him by his first name, if he is a familiar friend, and will send him on an errand as quickly as she would one of her sons. She puts a good heart and kindly disposition up in Gotham against all the learning restheticism, and English opera extant, and with a snap of her finger that sounds like the crack of a whip she will tell you that she doesn't care for the social aristocracy, which looks at her with a frigid air. "Ulyss"—She always called the old warrior "Ulyss"—has more friends than any of 'em and she likes her friends and is content to have them make her society."

California State Fair.

The speed programme for the State Fair of 1882 is published. Twenty-three races are advertised, and $12,500 offered as premiums. The Fair will commence on Monday, September 11th, and close Saturday, September 16th. The following are the conditions governing races: All trotting and pacing races are the best three in five, except the two-year-old trot, unless otherwise specified; five to enter and three to start. Entrance fee ten per cent. on purses, to accompany nomination. Purses divided at the rate of sixty per cent. to first horse, thirty per cent. to second, ten per cent. to third. National Association rules to govern trotting; but the Board reserves the right to trot heats of any two classes alternately, if necessary to finish any day's racing, or to trot a special race between heats. To fill running races, three or more subscribers are necessary. All two-year-olds, when running in their classes, shall carry 100 pounds, with the usual allowance for mares and geldings. All three-year-olds, when running in their classes, to carry 110 pounds, with the usual allowances as above.

$375 an Hour.

The Irish World gives the following estimate of Jay Gould's income: Jay Gould has according to the latest showing, $54,000,000 in stocks, which yield him $3,200,000 annually. This gives him $275,000 a month, $9,000 a day, $375 an hour or $6 a minute. While the miserably paid laborer is swallowing his hurried dinner, Gould's income has increased $375. There is surely something in this fact to set men thinking. A system of society which encourages this—which keeps men in personal poverty as a necessity to the further enrichment of his already wealthy fellow man can hardly be expected to be other than what it is—the parent of every species of crime and immorality. Dividends, profits, rack-renting, land-stealing and the whole train of villainies that go to make up our system of labor and exchanges, have their root in the principal of usury which enables Jay Gould to squeeze $375 an hour out of labor.

Walla Walla has seventy-eight citizens and corporations that pay taxes on $10,000 assessed valuations and upward. A good showing for a small place.

The largest aggregate vote ever cast in Nevada, is 24,660, whereas the Census Bureau says the aggregate voting population is 31,255.

A Gallant Deed.

The act of a sailor on board one of the ironclads off Alexandria, who picked up a burning shell and extinguished the fire by plunging it into a bucket of water, was unquestionably one of great bravery, for there are few more discomposing and generally uncertain objects to handle, or indeed to remain in the neighborhood of, than a live shell and a man who has the nerve to take one up, without in the least knowing how much longer the fuse has to burn, must be capable of any feat of cool gallantry. The only description of a similar incident that occurs to us is in a work of fiction—Captain Marryatt's novel of "The Kings Own." He makes his hero, then a little boy, walk up to a live shell during an engagement at sea and roll it overboard. A child, however, might do a thing like this without comprehending the danger he was incurring, whereas the sailor on the ironclad was of course fully aware that he was very literally taking his life in his hands when he lifted the hissing shell. Decidedly this was a consummate proof of a very high kind of courage indeed.

Mrs. Tompkins, the aunt of Gen. Grant, who recently died in West Virginia, had a son who served in the Confederate army under Lee, and first met his cousin when Lee surrendered at Appomattox. This son since the war has been one of the devoted followers of Gen. Grant, and was numbered among the 306 at Chicago.

Mrs. Scoville expresses her firm belief in spiritualism, and that in about four weeks she will have communications from Guiteau in the spirit-land. She says it requires about four weeks after death to get the means of communication between this world and the spirit-land to working order, when she will be able to communicate freely with her cranky brother.

In the reminiscences of Lincoln, lately contributed to the press by ex-Secretary Usher, the assertion is made that the Gettysburg speech was written by Lincoln in the cars, on the way to the celebration, on a piece of pasteboard.

It is now understood that negotiations with Frank James have progressed so far that he has agreed, in case of pardon, not to run for Governor of Missouri.

PRICE OF DAILY JOURNAL,

TOWN AND COUNTY.

On Dit.

That a picnic to Donner Lake is among the probabilities of the near future and that it would pay.

That it is powerful hot nowadays.

That Sunderland will sell $10,000 worth of hats this year.

That people make money by coming to Reno to buy supplies.

That the N. & O. will be pushed on steadily to tide water.

That stock should take a rise.

That the coming State Fair will be a good one. That $2,000 should be raised by the citizens to help it and that it should be held in September.

That the Central Pacific Railroad will be assessed at $16,000 per mile this year.

That the next Legislature will order the removal of the State Prison to Reno.

That all things point to a Republican victory this Fall—which is as it should be.

That Washoe county is the best off financially in the State and that taxes will be lower next year.

That a two cent postage on letters would be better than to accumulate money in the Postoffice Department.

That the JOURNAL will take a few more subscribers at 12½ cents a week—the price of a cigar.

That you should send in the news for publication—no matter how briefly stated we will "dish it up" for print.

That Reno is not as dull as the other towns of the State.

That Reno has a first class name on the outside and that many from other towns contemplate moving here to reside.

That the California Fair opens Sept. 11th and continues one week and that $30,000 will be put up in prizes—$5,000 more than last year.

That the hills around Reno are full of paying ledges, which will one day be profitably worked.

That the JOURNAL will give a chromo to the first candidate to announce himself in its columns. It is time that the early bird gets worms.

That now is the time to go camping out—away from all of life's cares except ants and dirt,

That the V. & T. will soon be made a narrow gauge.

That fishing at Washoe Lake is excellent.

That Moeler will have a fine picnic ground at Steamboat in a year or two.

That sagebrush is not a brilliant success as a shade tree.

That the Lake House is a good family hotel, and is well conducted.

That Washoe City will not amount to much when Pete Marker leaves it.

That a fast mail train across the continent will be running soon, and that an average of 25 miles an hour would make a gain of two days.

That the woods are full of candidates.

That the farmers are all too busy haying to come to town.

M. Nathan has advertised steadily in the JOURNAL ever since its first issue. Every publication day his invitation to the public has been spread all over this section, and as a consequence he has always done a good steady business. Persistent advertising is the very best means to reach the public, and no one knows this better than M. Nathan.

Frenchy, the much-bearded manager of the Arcade Restaurant, is going to be arrested. The case will be tried before Judge Young on the charge that he gives too good meals for the money. He will surely be convicted and doesn't stand the ghost of a show for acquittal. His many friends are invited to his execution.

Robinson's circus will be here tomorrow in all its glory, and of course every man, woman and child within a radius of ten miles will attend it. See the show bills for particulars. The street parade will take place at 10 o'clock. The circus will not show at Winnemucca to-night, so they can be fresh for this place.

H. H. Beck, of the Silver Star flouring mills at Reno, has gone South on a business trip for the firm. The Silver Star brand is about the finest in the market, and is being extensively introduced to the trade.

Go to Miss Flora McKay's testimonial to-night. A good programme has been prepared.

State Treasurer Crockett's rheumatism is a little better, but very painful.

THE BULL'S EYE.

Our Local Carver and Bogardus.

Reno can boast of one of the very finest wing and target shots in the State. Captain Bob Hoy in company with a JOURNAL reporter visited the shooting gallery where Mr. Hoy gave an exhibition of skill quite marvelous. He fired six shots at the target about a hundred feet distant and made the bell ring every time. Then he took a card, and making a hole in it slipped it over the muzzle of the gun before the sight. Thus handicapped he made three bull's eyes out of four shots, and made them with marvelous rapidity and ease. Some time ago an incredulous friend made a bet of a dollar against each bulls eye. Mr. Hoy began a quiet proceeding in bankruptcy on his friend's purse in such a rapidly startling manner that he cried quits after contributing eighteen dollars. Mr. Hoy is besides the very best wing shot in the county, if not in the State or on the coast. He is a member of the Reno squad of shooters in the approaching contests and is highly prized. Mr. Hoy is proprietor of the Capital Saloon and boasts of the finest brandy in town—old Otard, costing eighteen dollars a gallon. Whenever the militia or disciples of the rifle and fishing rod visit Reno, they are attracted to the Capital, as surely as a magnet to its armature.

This is the Way the World Goes.

The people of Nevada are a curious race. During the past five or ten years they have been clamoring against the Chinese and yet have continued to employ them to the detriment of honest hard working white men. It is a curious but noticeable fact that the class who most employ Chinese labor is the very one who most decry it. It seems to be a faculty instinct of human nature to go and get work done where it can be procured cheapest. The laboring classes of to-day are possessed of all the instincts of the capitalists—on a small scale, for they seek that labor which is the cheapest. Some months ago a white labor laundry was started here, which has done excellent work. The institution really represents the popular protest against Chinese labor competition and according to its success or failure will the status of Reno opinion on the Chinese question be judged. An employee of the laundry stated to a JOURNAL reporter that many Renoites seem to think that as a Chinaman can live on four bits a week, if they present two bits more to a white man, they are bestowing a handsome bonus on him. A Chinaman will take a ladies' finest dress and after crumping, fluting, curling and puffing, torturing and spitting at it in general with two hours of labor, will charge only a dollar and a quarter a week. He can live a on 25 cents day. The magnanimous Renoite when graciously conferring the same washing upon a poor trashy white workman will magnificently raise the amount of pay two bits more and smile a Pharisaical smile up to heaven because he is helping the white race, and damning the Chinese. Unless a people help themselves, Providence will remain silently out in the cold—and how the Reno people expect to remedy the Chinese question so far as they are concerned, and yet will like a leaf in the presence of a small temporary self-denial is a mystery. The existence to-day of Chinatown in the heart nearly of the city, is solely due to the apathy of Renoites who while damning the Chinaman, send a message for him privately to come for their washing.

The Tramp Trial.

The tramps engaged in the recent railroad fight were tried yesterday afternoon before Justice Young. Judge Cossitt, acting District Attorney, did not enter into any serious examination of the case, simply questioning the tramps as to their present occupation and status in the tramp profession. As to being tramps, they one and all indignantly denied the allegation and frowned fearfully upon the allegator. The complaint of vagrancy was the one acted on and it stirred up one charitable man to act in behalf of the unfortunates. The JOURNAL's item yesterday morning, showing that some of the men were more unfortunate than culpable, excited the sympathy of Mr. J. P. Johnson, who appeared in Court and offered to employ at least four of the men on his and other ranches. He offered to employ one, Miss Thomas two and Mr. Roberts or Lake another each. The offers were made in Court and eagerly accepted by the defendants. When Mr. Johnson made his offer in Court, several of the tramps spoke up at once offering to go to work at pitching hay, which, as is well known, is not an easy job. Four of them have been employed, while the balance were discharged by the Court, with a civil permit to quit the peaceful town of Reno.

A Fine Musician.

Miss Mary Young, the eldest daughter of Judge Young of the Police Court, is quite a phenomenon in the musical line. She has been studying music for only a few years and yet is now as far advanced as though she had studied fifteen, owing to her assiduity in practice.

A Lady's Visit to Hotel de Dawson.

Yesterday afternoon, through the courtesy of Dr. Dawson, Miss Mary Hayden was allowed to proceed through the wards of the Asylum, she being the first lady visitor going through the Asylum since the patients have arrived. Hardly had she entered the first female ward when an elderly patient rushed up to her and grasped her in a pleasing masculine manner. "How's your ma," cried she, "she and I are well acquainted." The poor woman then hugged and kissed Mary, in the most enthusiastic way. At the dinner table one of the patients was seated alongside of a small girl and seemed to eye her as though she were an office seeker. Suddenly when she thought the other was not looking, she streched out her fork in the slickest manner and appropriated a nice hunk of meat. A slight greenback debate then followed, and the meat traveled back on its legitimate road to the small girls diaphragm. It was quite an adventuresome trip for so young a lady to take.

Going to China.

A boss washman called upon us yesterday to tell us that he was going to China to live. He had been here nine years and had accumulated $5,000—which was enough to support him handsomely in the Orient. He was going to buy a wife with very small feet, and was going to keep her in first-class style. He liked the United States because it was a good place to make "heap money" in, but since the late agitation against coolie immigration he did not make so much money and he was afraid that "Melican man killee me bimeby." When asked about his certificate for return, he said that he would sell it to "my cousin." "Maybe so he likee come Newady." He wanted his interview put in print and went away with a smile on his face like a slit in a watermelon.

Personal.

Aleck McKenzie went up to Virginia yesterday morning.

R. O. Cravens, ex-State Librarian of California, passed through yesterday on his way to Missouri.

Mr. McMillan, the Virginia merchant, returned to his home yesterday from a trip to the Bay.

Wm. Walker, Robt. Lindsay and C. S. Varion got back from their fishing excursion last night.

J. Minor Taylor went below last night.

E. Strother came down last night. He will visit the East in the interest of his gubernatorial aspirations.

W. J. Marsh came to Reno last night after a months absence to Douglas county.

The Playful Powder.

About a week ago, Pietro Cosalio, while engaged in blasting logs in the mountains near Dog Valley, was painfully though not seriously injured by a premature explosion. He has arrived in town, and will go to the Hospital to-day. He is utterly unable to state how the explosion occured. He had a couple of pounds of giant powder lying on a log near where he was blasting, and by some means or other it took an excursion on its own account and banished into air, Mr. Cosalio has a sad remembrance of its playful upward flight; both of his hands being badly hurt and his face scarred and peppered while he looks like a walking pepper box.

Late Escapes.

Through the oversight of Warden Garrard yesterday Philo Knapp, the soda man of the Comstock, Ed. Austin agent for the Boca Beer Company, and Charley Taylor were allowed to escape. They appeared in Reno yesterday morning, and were arrested immediately ——by their numerous friends who kept them travelling from one saloon to the other in search of bail. They will be transported to Virginia City today by a body guard who will see they don't escape——treating.

Chinese Newspaper.

We saw a copy of the "Oriental Chinese Newspaper," published in San Francisco. It is a four page paper, about the size of the JOURNAL and was brim full of the latest news from all parts of the world, and its subscription price is $5. This paper is not on our exchange list, so we are unable to copy anything from its columns. If any of our subscribers feel the need of such a journal we know of no reason why they cannot subscribe for it and get it.

Testimonial Concert.

A literary entertainment will be given at the Congregational Church this evening. The proceeds are for the benefit of Miss Flora Finlayson, who has been organist in the church for a long time past, and the members wish to show their appreciation of her services. Miss Flora's singing and her willingness to assist in all public entertainments have made her a great favorite and we hope to see a crowded house. Admission, 10 cents.

Thanks to the Woman's Temperance Union for some ice cream. It was good.

Pay Us a Call.

Mr. Barns of the Golden Eagle Hotel is a victim of misplaced confidence. A few nights ago he was accosted by a large well built colored man, who requested a bed to stop in, saying he would make it all right with Mr. Barns. Mr. Barns in his goodness of heart escorted him to a nice room where he left him. The next morning, his colored guest strolled down stairs, and requested a basin to aid him to shave. He then shaved not only himself but Mr Barnes, and two other lodgers. From one he purloined a fine suit of clothes, and from another a two-bit piece and a fine silk handkerchief. Mr. Barnes was around looking for him yesterday morning. If he will oblige the Golden Eagle Hotel by a friendly visit, Mr. Barnes will never regret it so long as he lives.

A Tramps Skill.

In the progress of the tramps trial before Judge Young yesterday, a book belonging to John Astor was shown which exhibited a great degree of talent. It was only an ordinary small note book, yet it was full of sketches drawn with pencel, ink and crayon.

The Coming Magician.

Diavolini the famous magician who has been scaring Susanville, and Plumas county in general out of their shoes, will shortly afford the people of Reno a chance to witness an exhibition of his marvelous skill.

The Carson Tribune has commenced its nineteenth volume. It is a well edited newsy paper. We congratulate.

We had a fine shower yesterday. It was good for the atmosphere, but we fear it damaged the hay somewhat.

Remember to take a bath at Pechner's to-day. Hot and cold water, and a shower, clean towels, etc.

YOUNG

WHO may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretions, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. Dr. Spinney will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty, who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, the color will be a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration to the genito-urinary organs.

Office hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough Bronchitis, Asthma,

AND CONSUMPTION.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one, but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.
